

GET SUSPECT IN BURDEN ROBBERY

Prisoner Threw Away Package of Silverware, and Had Pawntickets for Jewelry.

George Glinn, a negro, of No. 42 East Thirtieth street, was arraigned in Eastern Police Court today on a suspicion that he knew something about the robbery at the home of James A. Burden, Jr., at Westbury, L. I., on Tuesday morning when one of the caretakers of the place was shot.

Glenn was about to enter a pawnshop at One Hundred and Fourteenth street and Eighth avenue when the detective approached him last evening, he ran, throwing away several packages of silver tableware. There were also pawn tickets for diamonds and other jewelry found in his pockets. The prisoner was taken to court at once and held without bail for further hearing today.

"Louise" Again Fills Manhattan Opera-House.

THERE was another large and fashionable audience at the Manhattan Opera House last night at a repetition of Charpentier's opera, "Louise." There was also plenty of applause for the heroine, Mary Garden, to whom, from Charpentier's box, the tenor contributed a generous offering. What more does our New York demand to convince her that New York is not without knowledge of musical art and does appreciate a modern opera and a modern style of singing? The performance altogether was excellent. Not only Mary Garden and the other principal singers—Bressler-Glanville, Dalmones and others—but every body that took part did well. The action was spirited and the spectacle on the hill of Montmartre again made a fine impression. CLARA FRANKLIN.

"AMEN CORNER" DINNER.

Presidential Possibilities Will Be Guests of Honor.

The brethren of the "Amen Corner" of the Fifth Avenue Hotel will hold their dinner on Saturday, Feb. 1. Several men who have been conspicuously mentioned as nominees for president, both Republican and Democratic, will be among the guests of honor. The three hundred and fifty guests will be made up of the presidents of "Amen Corner"—Governors, ex-Governors, judges, statemen and men who have been in the public view one time or another in the past year. This is the dinner of the year which is absolutely the most important from the promotion of anything but good cheer. The "stunts" which are always a feature of the dinner are of a natural character and "touch on" and "apertinent to" the big question that may come before the public.

GERMAN CHARITY BALL.

The German Charity Ball will be given this evening at the Waldorf-Astoria under the auspices of the Bachelor Circle of the German Colonists, Arthur and Beethoven Bachelors. The grand march will be led by Mrs. Edward C. Schaefer, with C. G. Hupfel, president of the committee.
